Duties of Officers

The President shall preside at all meetings of the PDTA, shall be the official spokesperson of the PDTA, shall call all regular and special meetings of the PDTA, shall appoint the Resolution Specialist, shall appoint two or more qualified individuals to audit the books, shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, shall appoint other personnel to perform special duties with the consent of the Representative Assembly, may be an ex-officio member of standing committees, and shall give an annual report to the membership on the work of the PDTA and file an official copy with the Secretary. The President will serve on the District Planning Team, and APPR large/small committees. In addition, the President shall be the first delegate to PDTA's state and national affiliates. During a school year, the President, acting on behalf of the PDTA, may enter negotiations with the District to amend the Agreement between the Board of Education and the PDTA.

The Executive Vice-President shall assume all duties of the President in the absence of the President, shall collect and prepare proposed constitutional amendments for presentation to the Representative Assembly, shall be PDTA's representative to the Board of Education and the PTSA (attending at least two PTSA meetings in a year), and shall attend the District Budget Review meetings. The Executive Vice-President will also serve on the District Planning Team, APPR large/small committees, Board of Education Interview Committee, Student Benefit Fund Selection Committee, and will be authorized as the third signatory on local checks if either the President or Treasurer's signature is not available. The Executive Vice-President shall be responsible for such other activities as assigned by the President and Executive Committee.

The Vice-President for Negotiations shall serve as Chair of the Professional Advancement Committee and of the Negotiating Team during negotiation years, and shall be responsible for such other activities as assigned by the President and Executive Committee. The Vice-President for Negotiations will also serve on the District Planning Team, APPR large/small committees, and all other committees which may have a direct impact on the collective bargaining agreement. The Vice-President for Negotiations shall be responsible for such other activities as assigned by the President.

The Secretary shall keep a record of all meetings of the PDTA, the Executive Committee and the Representative Assembly and shall report same in writing to the membership of the PDTA. The Secretary shall attend to all correspondence of the PDTA and keep all official records of the Association. At the end of the term of office, the Secretary shall turn over to the new Secretary the minutes and records of the PDTA and shall file annually with the PDTA's state and national affiliates, the names of the new officers. The Secretary shall be responsible for such other activities as assigned by the President.

The Treasurer shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures of the PDTA. The Treasurer shall disburse all funds by check with the authorization of the President. At each regular meeting of the Representative Assembly the Treasurer shall present a financial statement. At the end of the term, the Treasurer shall deliver to the new Treasurer all records and other materials of the PDTA. The fiscal year shall be from July 1 through June 30. The audit shall be made no later than August 31. The Treasurer-elect shall assume these duties following the completion of the audit. The Treasurer shall prepare a budget for the following year and present it for approval to the Representative Assembly prior to the annual Active Membership Meeting of the PDTA. The Treasurer will be responsible for all Federal filings. The Treasurer shall be responsible for such other activities as assigned by the President.
